Reading Comprehension

Q1) A) Read these texts carefully.

(15 M)

I work as a fire fighter in the fire station in my city. Yesterday I arrived at the fire station at 6 a.m. I checked everything as usual. Our first call was at 8 o'clock. We were called to an accident on the ring road. The police helped us to get there fast. One car was on fire and another car was upside down on the road. Fortunately, the driver of the burning car was standing by the side of the road. However, the driver of the other car was trapped. We put out the fire quickly and got the second driver out. He was badly injured. Then at the same night we were called at 12 o'clock because there was a fire in a big mall in the middle of the city. When we got there, the fire was burning strongly. The heat was terrible and some people were trapped inside. We put out the fire and we could go into the building and saved all the people. But some people had to go to the hospital. At the end of the day I was tired and upset about the accidents.

Now answer (Five) of the following questions:

Comprehension (25 Marks)

Q1) Read this text carefully.

My daughter, Jane, is fifteen years old. She never dreamed of receiving a letter from a girl of her own age in Holland. Last year we were travelling across the channel and Jane put a piece of paper with her name address on it into a bottle. She threw the bottle into the sea. She never thought of it again, but ten months later, she received a letter from a girl of her own age in Holland. Both girls write to each other regularly now. However, they have decided to use the post office. Letters will cost a little more but they will certainly travel faster. Reading Comprehension (25 Marks)

Q1) Read this text carefully.

A mountain is an area of land over 300 meters high. Mountains are millions of years old. Different animals and plants live in different parts of a mountain. It is very cold and windy at the top of mountains and there is a lot of ice and snow. Also there is no much oxygen so no plants can grow there. In the middle part of a mountain, a lot of evergreen trees grow. They are called evergreen because they keep their leaves all year. More types of wild animals can live here such as deers, wolves, bears, and birds. At the bottom of mountains, it is not so cold therefore many animals and plants live there including trees which lose their leaves in winter. People also build towns and villages here. Mountains can be very difficult to cross and climb because of the snow and ice. Tourists visit mountains for the beautiful sights and skiing. Mount Everest is the highest mountain in the world.

A) Answer (Five) of the following questions:

Reading Comprehension. (25 Marks)

Q1) Read this text carefully.

People often collect things like stamps, books and records. They are common. But the strangest collection is that of a man who collected 1500 clocks in his house. When you enter his house, you find clocks in every room of his house. The living-room is surrounded by shelves which were filled with clocks. Because there is not space for so many clocks, the man filled several bags with clocks and stored them in the garage. His wife suffers every day from the work she has to do, for it isn't easy to dust several hundred clocks. She also complains about the noise. Each clock keeps its own time, so that the alarm sounds can be heard anytime during the day and the night. She thinks there's something worse than dust and noise, she never knows what time it is!

Reading Comprehension (25 Marks)

Q1) Read this text carefully:

Linda went to a huge shop to look for a new dress last week. She took her little boy Jalal. He was more than one year old. When she reached there, she put her little boy on a chair and said, "Don't move, Jalal." After a short time, Linda looked around. She was sure it was only a minute later, Jalal was not there. She ran round the shop looking for him and calling his name. But there was no good. She ran outside and looked up and down the pavement but there was no sign of him. She was sure he was under a car. She was very frightened. Then two women came round the corner with Jalal. He was laughing. The two women were looking for a policeman because they knew he was lost.
